◆ 17TH - 20TH JANUARY 2018 ◆

CHRISTOPHE
HARBOUR
ST. KITTS

ACREW

WELCOME TO CARIBBEAN CREWFEST 2018!

Caribbean Crewfest is a unique event, crafted for crew to relax, enjoy and learn.

Christophe Harbour provides the most beautiful setting and facilities to make this event truly memorable for crew. As the vision for this destination unfolds, more world class facilities are added and this year sees the opening of their brand new crew amenities where Thursday evening's barbecue and entertainment will be held.

Yachts are welcome to enjoy free berthing throughout the event.

Crew learning is an important element of the event with workshops scheduled to cover key superyacht topics and crew wellbeing. Team dynamics specialists The Daisy Gray Partnership and interior experts The Crew Academy will be flying out their teams to join other industry experts in delivering great workshops.

As an event designed to give back to crew, there is also plenty of fun, downtime and socialising built in to the programme. The Crewfest Games, event finale party, welcome drinks and barbecue all provide plenty of opportunity for Captains and crew to get together.

Caribbean Crewfest 2018 is set to be another wonderful event for Captains and crew to enjoy.

09.00 - 10.30 THURSDAY 18TH JANUARY

CREW CROSSFIT TRAINING SESSION PART I

Facilitators: Aaron Vick and Lucien Charland

Partner: On The Rock Crossfit

Crossfit experts 'On The Rock Crossfit' help people achieve their goals by making conditioning fun, competitive, and educational. Their classes combine gymnastics (calisthenics) with multi-joint weightlifting, interval training, and aerobic training. CrossFit approaches fitness as a contest against oneself. Workouts are measured by objective criteria like wattage, time, weight lifted, repetitions, or force, instead of repetitive "bodypart splits." Highly addictive, CrossFit focuses on perfection of form, a high frequency of variance in movement, a high intensity level over a short time period, and fun. Join fellow 'Crewfesters' for a great session and earn your lunch!

09.00 - 10.30 - THURSDAY 18TH JANUARY

GARMENT CARE, SHOE CARE, PACKING AND UNPACKING

Facilitator: Sophie Leach

Partner: The Crew Academy

Have you been asked to pack or unpack onboard and been caught off guard? A great deal of time and energy can be saved through perfecting the skills of packing and unpacking and attentive care of garments and shoes, and your guests will trust you all the more for it. This workshop will share some fascinating and insightful information and practises that will ensure you are not thrown under the bus when you guests ask you questions about their haut couture garments and items, as well as how to care for or treat them.

10.30 - 12.00 - THURSDAY 18TH JANUARY

MASTERING THE LONG HAUL

Facilitator: Shawn O'Brien

Partner: ISS GMT

Crew fly long haul. A lot. Being able to step off a plane fresh and ready to meet up with friends and relatives or indeed get straight back to a busy work week is truly invaluable. It is possible to learn the skills and tricks that help regular fliers cope with sitting still for so long, crossing time zones and other challenges. Shawn from ISS GMT will share every trick there is to assist in effective preparations, as well as how to maximise health and wellbeing during the flight and once landed. From the simple things such as maintaining body temperature and hydration, to accessing safety advice and information for where you are headed, the synergy of all this information will make jet-lag a thing of the past and will help you arrive fresh and revived.

10.30 - 12.00 - THURSDAY 18TH JANUARY

INTERPRETING VITAL SIGNS IN MEDICAL INCIDENTS ONBOARD

Facilitator: Roland Archdall

Partner: Remote Diagnostic Technologies

RDT will discuss the value in monitoring vital signs when dealing with medical incidents onboard. The workshop will include practical examples of what vital signs will tell you and medical professionals in a variety of incidents. Using live demonstrations, with the Tempus IC2 and willing participants, scenarios crew may face onboard will be recreated. For each example there will be discussion of the potential timelines and why the recording vital signs is of such importance.

10.30 - 12.00 - THURSDAY 18TH JANUARY

BOOKING ARTISTS FOR SUPERYACHT EVENTS

Facilitator: Dani L Mebius

Partner: Majestic | Superyacht Artist Booking

Organising a special occasion onboard is a high pressure task for a crew member. Success can take guest perception of their experience onboard from excellent to unforgettable. Live music is sometimes the addition that elevates events to the next level, and can include a superstar DJ, a top band or even just a low key acoustic artist. This workshop will provide crew with insider information as to how to book reliable, comprehensive and suitable artists with confidence. Attendees will understand how to get the right artist for the event, how to manage the process and what kind of prices are paid. Any questions at all about booking artists for superyachts will be answered and plenty of real life case studies will illustrate the how this complex area operates

10.30 - 12.00 - THURSDAY 18TH JANUARY

ART CLASS

Facilitator: Sue DeBuck-Woodard

Partner: Dale Art Gallery

Resident artist at Christophe Harbour, Dale Kelley, will be organising a practical art session for those keen on creating their own piece of art in her marina studio. The workshop, which is being led by Sue DeBuck-Woodard, is going to be a fun, light-hearted activity, with a Carib in one hand and a paintbrush in the other -true Caribbean style! All levels of painting experience are welcome in this zero judgment space where the paintings are never bad! At the end of class, each person takes home a masterpiece of their own creation.

13.00 - 16.30 - THURSDAY 18TH JANUARY

A SELECTION OF EXCURSIONS IN ST. KITTS AND NEVIS

Upon arrival, all yachts will receive a list of exciting excursions that are being planned in St Kitts and Nevis. Make sure to select your top 3 choices and drop-off your form during the Welcome Drinks on Wednesday evening.

13.00 - 15.30 - THURSDAY 18TH JANUARY

WELCOME DRINKS FOR GUESTS

Facilitator: Sophie Leach
The Crew Academy & Christophe Harbour

The class will focus on some of the classic drinks you can use as the first beverage offered. Attendees will learn about the drinks, taste them and be able to talk about them if required. Lager is often overlooked when thinking of serving drinks on a superyacht, but it is usually served at some point! A variety of pilsners will be sampled and discussed including some local favourites. Of course a sparkling wine will be covered as well as some classic welcoming cocktails.

13.00 - 15.30 - THURSDAY 18TH JANUARY

CREATING AN AUTHENTIC CARIBBEAN BREAKFAST

Facilitator: Barnaby Jones

Partner: Christophe Harbour

Executive Chef of Christophe Harbour Barnaby Jones shares his passion for local, Caribbean food and will demonstrate how to source and create the classic dish; Ackee and saltfish. The workshop will begin with a trip to the local farm where attendees can pick ingredients and discuss the unique foods and flavours available on the island. These ingredients will then be taken back to the beautiful owner's Pavilion restaurant and used to create this authentic breakfast classic in the open kitchen. Keen to discuss the history, unique flavours and culture that make up the Caribbean kitchen, Barnaby will enthusiastically field any questions you may have.

13.00 - 15.30 - THURSDAY 18TH JANUARY

DOES ONE SIZE FIT ALL?

Facilitator: Sara Ballinger

Partner: The Daisy Gray Partnership

Do you want to be the sort of leader that your team talks about with respect and admiration? Great leadership is not a theory, a mystery or something you are born with it is simply responding to the needs of your team in the right way at the right time. This introduction to our leadership compass will give you a taste of just how simple it can be to get the results you need through your people, first time, every time. At the end of the session you will understand the 3 key skills of a responsive leader, be able to identify what the individuals on your team need from you and know how best to respond to those needs to get what you need from your team.

17.00 - 21.00 THURSDAY 18TH JANUARY

EVENING DRINKS AND DINNER AT THE NEW CREW AMENITIES

The ongoing development at Christophe Harbour is staggering and world class facilities for crew has always been a key part of the vision. This year sees the opening of the brand new crew amenities so it is fitting to host a fun and easy evening of drinks, dinner and some fun games and surprises! After a day mixing it up with different people in workshops and excursions the evening is a great opportunity to network.

09.00 - 10.30 FRIDAY 19TH JANUARY

YOU AND YOUR FINANCIAL WELL-BEING

Facilitator: Elliot Krauze

Partner: United Advisers Marine

“If you make a good income each year and spend it all, you are not getting wealthier. You are just living high.”

Thomas J. Stanley and William D. Danko, The Millionaire Next Door

Focusing on financial well-being lets you assert your own path to financial security. In this workshop the focus is on you, your financial needs, and the unique actions you can take during your yachting career.

Secure your future lifestyle.

Everyone has a different attitude towards saving (and spending). This workshop helps you understand what is possible based on your priorities and preferences. Find out how your personality type impacts your attitude towards risk, saving and expenses. Understand your financial well-being with our quick health check that audits your financial position and planning. There is also the opportunity to ask your questions to the experts.

09.00 - 10.30 FRIDAY 19TH JANUARY

CREW CROSSFIT TRAINING SESSION PART II

Facilitators: Aaron Vick and Lucien Charland

Partner: On The Rock Crossfit

Crossfit experts 'On The Rock Crossfit' help people achieve their goals by making conditioning fun, competitive, and educational. Their classes combine gymnastics (calisthenics) with multi-joint weightlifting, interval training, and aerobic training. CrossFit approaches fitness as a contest against oneself. Workouts are measured by objective criteria like wattage, time, weight lifted, repetitions, or force, instead of repetitive "bodypart splits." Highly addictive, CrossFit focuses on perfection of form, a high frequency of variance in movement, a high intensity level over a short time period, and fun. Join fellow 'Crewfesters' for a great session and earn your lunch!

09.00 - 10.30 FRIDAY 19TH JANUARY

PREPARING AND SERVING QUALITY COFFEE

Facilitator: Sophie Leach

Partner: The Crew Academy

Do you know how to serve an amazing coffee and what it has been through before being perfectly presented to your guests? For crew onboard, to confidently step in to the role of barista, it is very useful to know; how coffee has been sourced, transported and how to store and serve it correctly. It is also important to understand the equipment you are using and how this will affect the final cup. In this workshop, Sophie will provide a full speed overview of all you need to know to select and store beans to create a perfect brew. Attendees will then be shown a variety of preparation methods, and will run through the more popular ways make coffee drinks including such as macchiato, ristretto, cortado and maybe the Perfect Espresso Martini...

10.30 - 12.00 FRIDAY 19TH JANUARY

WHY ARE THEY LIKE THAT?

Facilitator: Sara Ballinger

Partner: The Daisy Gray Partnership

Ever wondered why you click with some people and not with others? Mystified by the approach some people take to their life and their work? Are you interested in your natural strengths and how to get the best from yourself? Would you like to be able to manage your relationships more effectively? Want to get build rapport, influence and things done through people? After a busy season this high energy interactive workshop takes a light-hearted approach to understanding yourself and your fellow crew and the complex nature of co-working relationships onboard. Join to have some fun, open your eyes and change your perspective. Attendees will receive complimentary access to a questionnaire which will provide you with a report summarising your natural strengths and your preferred communication style.

10.30 - 12.00 FRIDAY 19TH JANUARY

RESPONSIBLE MARINA STEWARDSHIP

Facilitator: Aeneas Hollins

Partner: Christophe Harbour

For superyacht captains who follow good environmental stewardship practices onboard, berthing in a marina that doesn't follow similar policies can be quite frustrating. Former superyacht captain Aeneas Hollins, now Director of Yachting at Christophe Harbour, leads a discussion of best stewardship practice for superyacht marinas and marine environments. The discussion will draw upon Aeneas's direct experience with developing a new marina at Christophe Harbour and shepherding a new yachting industry in St. Kitts, but will also draw on the audience's own experiences for a more global perspective. The aim is to uncover those marinas that demonstrate quality stewardship to the highest levels and how they do it. Also, the group will discuss poor practices and identify how to mitigate. This workshop is great for any crew interested in preserving the marine environment.

13.00 - 16.30 - FRIDAY 19TH JANUARY

THE CREWFEST GAMES 2018

Represent your yacht in teams of four as you complete a challenging team race against other yacht teams. Overcome obstacles, race paddleboards, climb over water inflatables, run and swim your way to victory to become Crewfest Games Champions of 2018. Last year's victors from MY KAMALAYA were worthy champions. Who will win this year?

19.00 - 00.00 - FRIDAY 19TH JANUARY

CREW PARTY

The event finale is always a crew party to remember! This year's theme is 'Doctors and Nurses'. With no shortage of ill dancefloor maneuvers, some musical therapy and plenty of medicinal tonics available, the night should be a wholesome affair. Held at a special venue and featuring resident Zoom DJ Dani L Mebius, a dancefloor packed extravaganza is guaranteed!
