In the late 18th century, a notorious prison above Tivat held smugglers, pickpockets and political opponents to the ruling dynasty captive for years.

Today, everyone knows the legend of Ivo Nikolić. The only prisoner to have successfully escaped the camp in Gornja Lastva and found his way to safely sail out from the Boka Bay. The only thing left, apart from his extraordinary story, are his letters.

Your mission? You and your comrades must use Ivo's letters as your guide and decipher clues, bribe guards and solve all sorts of mental and strategic challenges to reach freedom.

Are you up to the challenge, do you think you can do it?
